“D’Artagnan is a very brave musketeer. He was raised by his father and his mother in Gascogne, in France. D’Artagnan has a dream: he wants to go to Paris to become a musketeer.

His father is friends with the captain of the musketeers: captain Treville. He gave D’Artagnan a letter of recommendation so he can become a musketeer immediately. But on the way to Paris, a mysterious attacker stole his letter of recommendation and his money! He’s all alone and now must find the thief to become a musketeer.

But he won’t be alone. The three famous musketeers, Athos, Porthos and Aramis will be there to help him.

And you? Will you help him?”

TOUR AROUND PARIS

Listen to the story, then draw a map of Paris and answer the questions.

I went to Paris last summer. It was beautiful. It really is one of the most beautiful cities in the world. In Paris, you can visit the Eiffel Tower, but I think the streets and the people and all of the small places you can visit are the best thing about it. For instance, I visited the Cathedral of Paris. It was a beautiful building, very peaceful and calm. Then, I went to the library. There are a lot of books there! Finally, I visited the town square and bought some souvenirs at the local store. I couldn't leave Paris without visiting the Palace of the Musketeers. I saw Athos, Porthos and Aramis walking in there with Captain Tréville. They looked very brave! It was the best part of my visit.
